To understand Islam according to Muhammad, it is essential to examine his core messages, the principles he emphasized, and the practical example he set.

The Definition of Islam in Muhammad's Teachings

The term Islam itself means submission or surrender — specifically, surrender to the will of God. Muhammad's teachings articulate that true Islam involves submitting wholeheartedly to the Creator's guidance, which encompasses belief, worship, morality, and social conduct. The Prophet summarized the religion with a concise declaration:

“There is no god but Allah, and Muhammad is His messenger.”

This declaration, known as the Shahada, is the cornerstone of Islamic faith and encapsulates the core of Muhammad's understanding of Islam.

Core Principles of Islam According to Muhammad

Prophet Muhammad's teachings emphasize several foundational principles that define Islam:

- Monotheism (Tawhid): The belief in the oneness of God is central. Muhammad's message repeatedly stressed that worship should be directed solely to Allah, without associating partners with Him.

- Prophethood (Nubuwwah): Muhammad affirmed that he is the last in a line of prophets sent by God, including Adam, Noah, Abraham, Moses, and Jesus, all of whom conveyed the divine message.

- Revelation (Quran): The Quran is the final and complete divine scripture, serving as a guide for human life, morality, and spirituality.

- Accountability and the Hereafter (Akhirah): Every individual will be held accountable for their actions, and life after death is a significant aspect of Muhammad's teachings.

- Justice and Compassion: Islam encourages justice in dealings with others and compassion in personal and societal relationships.

The Practical Manifestations of Islam According to Muhammad

While the theological principles form the foundation, Muhammad's teachings also emphasize practical aspects of living an Islamic life. These practices shape the daily routines and social responsibilities of Muslims.

The Five Pillars of Islam

The Five Pillars are the practical framework laid out by Muhammad that every Muslim should observe:

These pillars are not merely rituals but embody the submission to God's will and serve to reinforce community bonds.
