Sample Lesson Plan Structure for Gorilla

Lesson Title: Exploring Friendship and Imagination with Gorilla by Anthony Browne

Grade Level: 1st ? 3rd grade

Duration: 1 hour

Learning Objectives:

- Students will identify key themes of friendship and imagination in Gorilla.
- Students will analyze the illustrations and discuss their significance.
- Students will create their own story inspired by the themes of the book.

Materials Needed:

- Copies of Gorilla by Anthony Browne
- Drawing paper and coloring supplies
- Chart paper and markers
- Character and theme discussion prompts

Step-by-Step Lesson Breakdown

- Engagement and Introduction (10 minutes)

Begin by showing students a picture of the book cover and asking questions like:

- What do you see in this picture?
- What do you think this story might be about?
- Have you ever had a special friendship or an imaginary friend?

This sparks curiosity and activates prior knowledge.

- Reading the Book (15-20 minutes)

Read Gorilla aloud, using expressive voice and pointing to illustrations. Alternatively, for more advanced readers, students can take turns reading.

Encourage students to pay attention to:

- The illustrations and what they reveal about the story.
- The emotions of the characters.
- The setting and how it influences the story.

- Guided Discussion (10-15 minutes)

Use open-ended questions to analyze the story:

- Why do you think the boy in the story wants a gorilla as a friend?
- How do the illustrations show the boy's feelings?
- What might the gorilla in the story represent?

- Can you think of a time when you used your imagination to have fun?

Create a chart with students' responses to organize ideas about friendship, imagination, and emotions.

- Art and Creative Extension Activity (15 minutes)

Invite students to create their own "imagination scene" or a picture of a friendship. Options include:

- Drawing a scene where they are with a special friend or imaginary creature.
- Writing a short story about an imaginary adventure with their chosen character.
- Using coloring supplies to bring their scene to life, emphasizing expressive details.

Encourage students to think about the emotions they want to convey in their artwork.

- Reflection and Sharing (10 minutes)

Allow students to present their drawings or stories to the class, explaining their ideas. Facilitate a discussion about:

- How imagination helps us have fun.
- The importance of friendship and accepting others.
- How stories and pictures can help us understand feelings.

Differentiation and Adaptations

- For students with reading difficulties, provide a summarized version of the story or use picture cues.
- For advanced learners, encourage deeper analysis of Browne's illustration techniques or compare Gorilla to other stories about friendship.
- Use visual aids, storyboards, or role-playing for kinesthetic learners.

Assessment Strategies

- Observe student participation during discussions and activities.

- Review students' drawings and stories for understanding of themes.
- Use reflective questions or journals where students express what they learned from the story.
- Provide feedback focusing on comprehension, creativity, and emotional insight.

Cross-Curricular Connections

Art: Study Browne's illustration style, discuss how pictures tell a story, and create personal artwork.

Literacy: Practice sequencing events, character analysis, and descriptive writing inspired by the story.

Social-Emotional Learning: Explore themes of friendship, empathy, and identity through discussion and activities.

Music and Drama: Act out scenes from the story or compose simple songs about friendship and imagination.

Additional Resources and Extensions

- Author Study: Explore other Anthony Browne books and their themes.
- Storytelling Projects: Encourage students to create their own picture stories.
- Field Trips: Visit local zoos or animal sanctuaries to learn about real gorillas and conservation efforts.
